Miscellaneous

The democratic majority over the republicans in New York on the Congressional vote is 75-645

Texas is the banner democratic State, the majority at the November congressional election being 160-804

Miss Patten White, an aged lady living near Coleman, N. C., jumped into a well a few days ago and drowned herself.

The gas commission of New York City, at its last meeting decided to reject all the bids put in on Dec. 4 for lighting the streets by electricity, and the members expressed themselves as ready to resume the use of gas lamps throughout the city rather than pay the prices demanded by the electric light companies.

News of a wedding in Cairo, Egypt, on November 22, which will interest a number of people in this country, has been received.
Mason Bay, or Alexander Macomber Mason, of Virginia, was married to Miss Sophie P.
Horry Shreve, daughter of the late Edmund Horry, of Richmond. The ceremony was performed at the Anglo-American All Saints' Church by the Very Rev. Dean Bucher.

The appointment of a portion of the proceeds of the sale of public lands for the more complete endowment and maintenance of colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts in the various states and territories has about been completed by the Secretary of the Interior. Under the provisions of the act, the sum of $15,000 was appropriated for an institution of this character in each state and territory, and for ten years to come this appropriation is to be increased each year by $1,000. In Virginia there are two institutions which will share this fund; namely, the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College at Blacksburg, for the education of white students, and the Hampton Normal and Agricultural College, located at Hampton, Elizabeth City county, for the education of colored students.

A weird procession, as was probably narrowed before in any city in the United States, took place between the hours of 2 and 5:30 o'clock Monday morning in St.
Louis, the occasion being the celebration of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception by the Italians. Half a hundred torch-bearers were in the front. Then followed a bugler, who at intervals sent his clarion notes resounding along the well-lighted deserted thoroughfares. Behind him came a dozen stout, starry-shafted bearers on their broad shoulders a wooden platform. On this rested an image of the Blessed Virgin Mary, decorated and adorned with gold and silver and precious stones, and surrounded with wreaths of fruits and flowers. On all four sides burned scented candles, the reflections from which sent dazzling scintillations of light from the diamonds which bedecked the figure.

GAVE HIS WIFE AWAY.—At Caspar, Wyoming, Saturday George Spracklin, who runs the biggest meat market in the town, gave his wife, Lucy, away to Marshall Buxton, the blacksmith and considerable dealer for that trade. Success in business seems to have turned the Spracklin family upside down, and for some time past their home has not been a heaven. Spracklin meeting Buxton on the street said: "Come, let's go down to the house." Arriving at the house they found Mrs. Spracklin and her baby.
Spracklin said:
"I don't love her Buxton do you want her?"
Buxton answered: "Yes, I always loved her." Spracklin said: "Take her and I will throw in the furniture."
"Thank you, George," replied Buxton, "I will let you up when I come up town tonight."
Spracklin gave Buxton a bill of sale for the household goods. All the parties have heretofore enjoyed a good reputation, and the town is thunderstruck at their doings.
Mrs. Spracklin is a long plain minister's daughter and is a pretty, intelligent woman of twenty.

BELIEVED THE FORTUNE TELLER.

—WIL-libald Thoman, forty-three years old, an expert silk weaver, ended his life by hanging at Allentown, Pa., Tuesday. Thoman had been at the mercy of fortune tellers for seven or eight years. Thoman had been married but a few years when he one day had his fortune told by a woman. She told him that his wife was unfaithful. Prior to this time his family relations were of a most pleasant character. Although Mrs. Thoman denied the charges, her husband placed implicit confidence in the fortune teller.
Thoman continued his visits to the seeress, who invariably had the same story of his wife's unfaithfulness to tell him. So heavily did the subject play upon the man's mind that he, six months ago, gave up his work.
For some weeks Thoman had been carrying a rope in his pocket with the intention of ending his life, and on November 29 he tried to hang himself in the doorway between the dining-room and kitchen of his home. He was cut down by his wife, and his life saved. After his family retired Tuesday night he read a German prayer book and then hanged himself at the same place where the wife had cut him down a week ago. Before fastening the rope around his neck he soaped it in order that it might work well.

NARAMORE'S STUDIO.
The increase in our orders and entire satisfaction given in the past seems to guarantee us in urging those who wish a FINE PORTRAIT to a very low figure to give us an early call to avail themselves of the opportunity. There is nothing more appropriate or acceptable for a holiday gift than a GRAYON PORTRAIT in one of our ELEGANT FRAMES.
With each dozen Cabinet Photographs we give an extra picture for framing.
